TERRIERS
40

Foreword

We present in this yearbook what we think represents the spirit which is St. Francis de Sales School. For many years we have been identified with spirit. When the word in mentioned, all minds react with the terms "Terriers" or "St. Francis." We therefore think it is appropriate that at least one of our yearbooks, which are mirrors of our school life, should reflect this inherent factor. It is with this objective in mind that we present Terr'Alma 1962.

Advice to Seniors

Dear Graduates,

You are about to begin an important journey. Your launching pad is your Catholic faith based on the teachings of Christ Himself. Your parents, priests, and teachers have spent countless hours in preparing you for the start of this important voyage. Your equipment is the very best. If for any reason you should veer from your charted course, those grace-giving retro-rockets of prayer and the sacraments are there to steady you again. With a contributory effort on your part, you, too, can achieve success.

Unlike Colonel John Glenn's trip, which lasted a scant four hours, the launching which you have begun extends even into eternity—to God.

Dear Graduates of 1962,

Joy be yours as you continue your journey on the King's Highway!
See Him ever before you, and let your only aim in life be to uphold His Standards:

Any work that lies before your hand
And any joy that beacons you to taste
Will be the pure, the good, the blessed
And the crown of all that renders earth
The glory of His Name

May no one be less good for having come within your influence; no one less pure, less true, less kind, less noble for having been with you a fellow traveler on that journey that leads toward Eternal Life.

Then in all things, Charity!

Our school's "Lunch line" is always a conglomeration of hunger, and chatter.

It isn't very often that a "free" study period comes along. These information-seeking girls can vouch for that!

We Are . . .

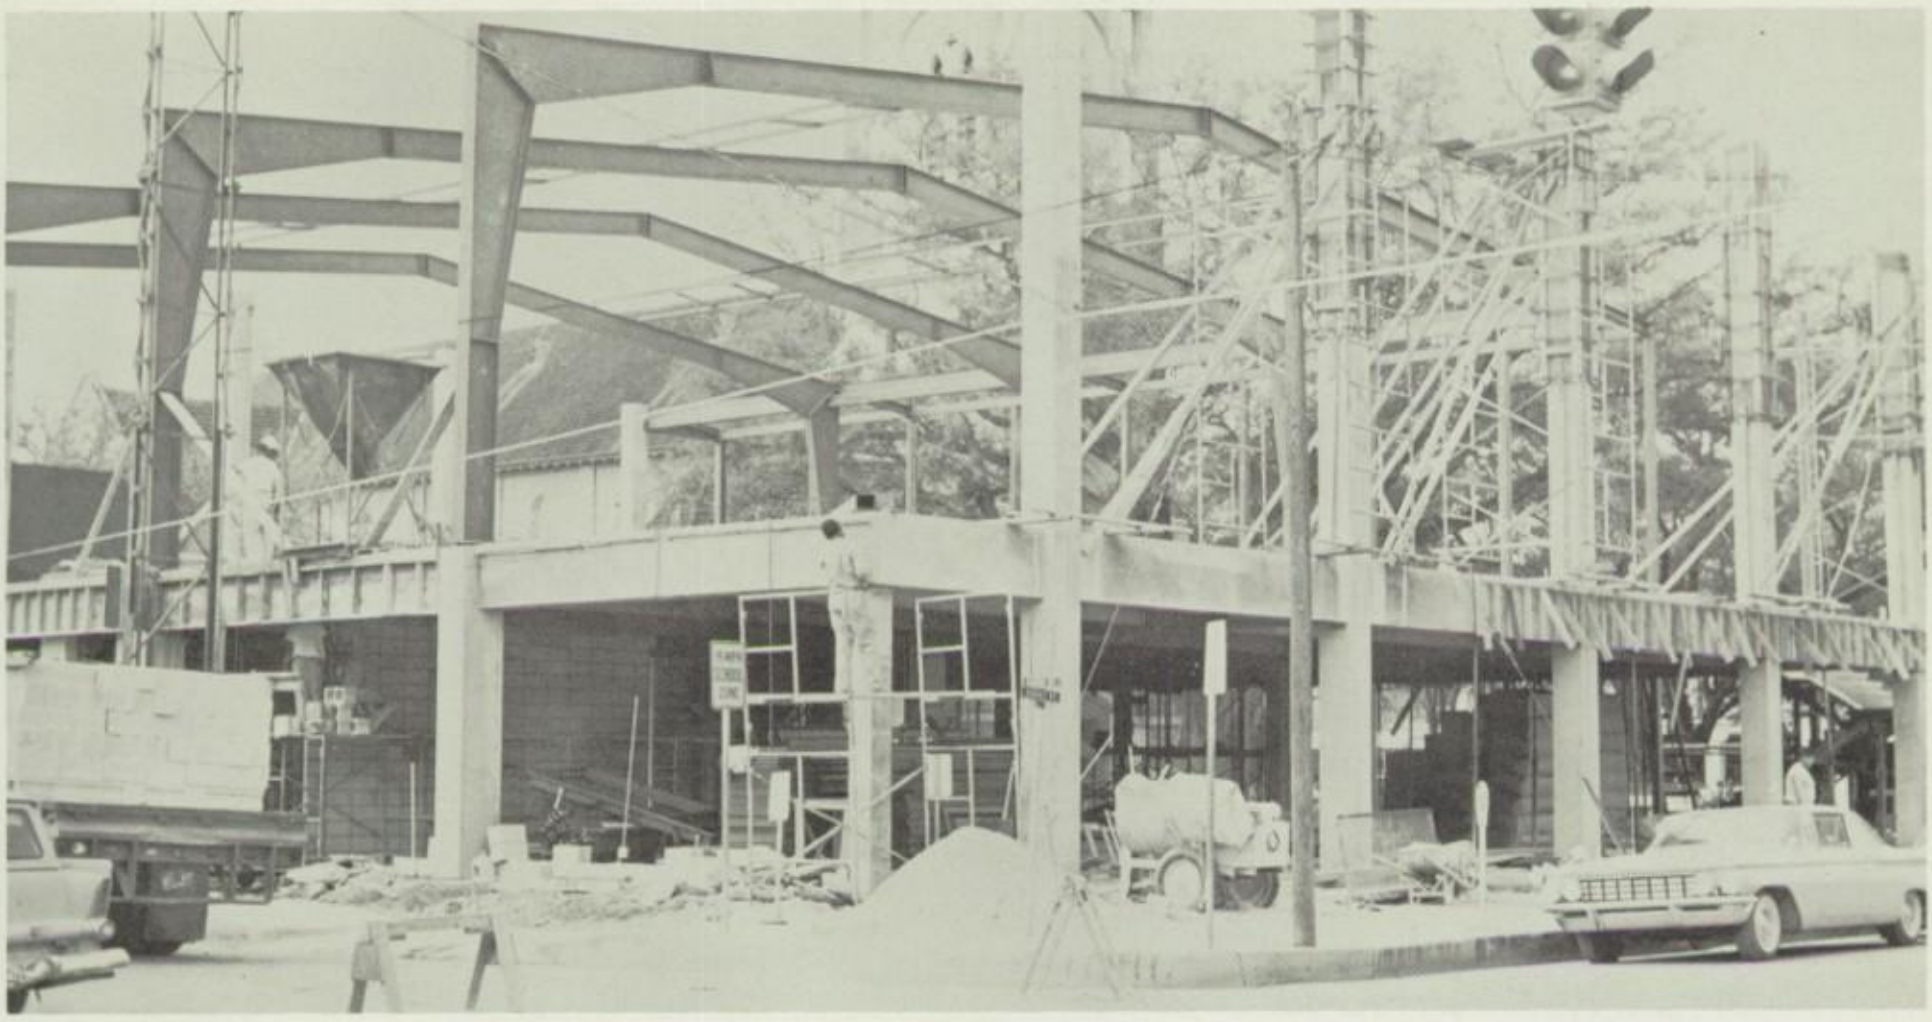
. . . Proud of SFS



Construction of our new gym rapidly progresses throughout the 1961-62 school term.

The spirit of St. Francis is found in activities, our school, organizations, etc.; but nowhere is true spirit exemplified as in the hearts of SFS students.

Spirit of Devotion

For stern guidance and sympathetic counseling, we want to say "Thank you" to our diligent parish shepherds.

Lumen Club Inspires

The Lumen Club was organized two years ago to provide the school with an organization devoted to the mission of helping students to find their vocation. This year was a heartening second season for the budding group.

Thelma La Fleur, president of the Lumen Club, illustrates here the three vocations one has to choose from, single state, religious state, and the married state.

Judge J. Louis Watkins was the guest speaker for the evening. The highlight of the ceremony was the candlelight singing of the "Halls of St. Francis."

Beads for Mary

Officers of the S. F. S. Rosary-making guild Barbara Authement, and Lenora Breaux show Caroline Sonnier the techniques used in completing a rosary.

The output of rosaries for mission use was most gratifying to both teachers and students this year. Everyone displayed mission patriotism by the use of their weapon against sin, their rosary pliers. What a beautiful world this will be when it will, at last, be encircled by Our Lady's chain of roses.

Robin Wurzlow and Monique Ellender pack the completed rosaries for use in the mission fields.

Art of Communication

Speech Club

As a result of continuous research and study on the topic, Federal Aid to Education, these speech students received excellent ratings at the Discussion Tournament in Lafayette.

Winona Lee, Jean Ellen Millet and Cecil Cenac discuss modern techniques used for teaching catechism to young public school pupils.

During the month of October the Sodality members formed a living rosary, under the guidance of Sr. Mary Flavia. The students joined in with them in honor of Our Lady.

In Honor of Our Lady

Officers of the 1961 Sodality are Julie Boyne, President, Diane Vice, Vice President, Frances Guillot, Secretary, and Dana Lee Jackson, Treasurer.

In the sodality, the spirit of generosity is extended to all needy places. Here Mary Ann and Sheila are off to mail a package to the Marianite Mission.

Music at St. Francis

The Glee Club sang many times during the year. All performances were successful!

Choir members Susan Dill, Ann Theriot, Laura Fanguy, Cookie Belanger, and Gwen Davidson practice the Proper for nine-thirty High Mass which they sing every other Sunday.

Mr. Francis Achee was vocal director of the St. Francis Glee Club.

Rhea Boudreaux, Carolyn Daigle, and Kathleen Marquette, our vocal trio, rated excellent at the State Rally.

French Class Initiates

During the Christmas season at an informal concert, the French Club sang Christmas Carols in the original French words.

LE CIRCLE FRANCAIS

The French Club originated this year in the Sophomore B class. With Sister Mary Philip as moderator, the club tried to stimulate the old French customs and the pure language in its members.

In an effort to revive local color, the members sang carols at Christmas in the original French words.

Then in May, the club sponsored a play which won the honor of being presented at the State Rally and was presented a certificate of merit there.

Secretary-Treasurer, Georgia Clark, left, and President, Songa Lee Cheramie, right, plan a meeting with committee members Sheila Rome and Susan Dill. Other officers are Marie Voisin and Pat Porche.

Sonja Lee Cheramie received an Excellent rating for the French speech she delivered at State Rally.

Sophomores Molly Pierce, Sheila Del Bueno, and Barbara Hatcher perform in a French play at the rally.

Future Leaders Show Civic Spirit

The Roaring Seventeen Civics Club, under the guidance of Mrs. Louis Gueniot, Jr., portrayed the example of true citizens this year. They chose as their motto, "A Co-operative Citizen is a Progressive Citizen."

The members of the Civics Club are all of the Sophomore A class. They were very active in civic affairs in school, such as: taking charge of the school's fire drill and informing other student citizens about local and national affairs by publishing the Civics Bulletin. Informational pointers were on hand on the "Facts Board" in the Civics Room.

The Club also participated in community affairs. For example, they broadened their knowledge of our historical center, the courthouse, by touring it thoroughly.

Officers of the civic club, all from Sophomore A class, are: Patricia Frazier, president; Bernadine Boudreaux, vice president; recording secretary, Aleta Roper; corresponding secretary, Jean LeBlanc; and sergeant-at-arms, Connie Le Jeune.

For Fire Prevention Week, the civic-minded organization members all made and put up posters reminding the students of their responsibilities. With one of the posters are Vicky and Carol Charpentier.

The civic club members even took tours of the educational places of interest of the parish. Here with Mrs. Gueniot, moderator, and Mr. Duet, the girls went on a special tour of the sheriff's office.

Coaches Gerard Boudreaux, Leslie Daigle, and Gerald Albert willingly share their experience of football in coaching the Terrier team.

During SFH-Lockport game, Harold Haydel plunges over the line for a first down.

These jackets are symbolic of hard work, cooperation, and team spirit throughout the season.

Milwaukee Signs Harold

Harold Haydel, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Haydel, signs a professional baseball contract with the Milwaukee Braves. Standing are Mel Didier, Brave talent scout, and Buddy Marcello, who coached Harold for several years.

From High School to Pro

Harold Haydel is believed to be the first local high school youth to sign a major league contract upon high school graduation.

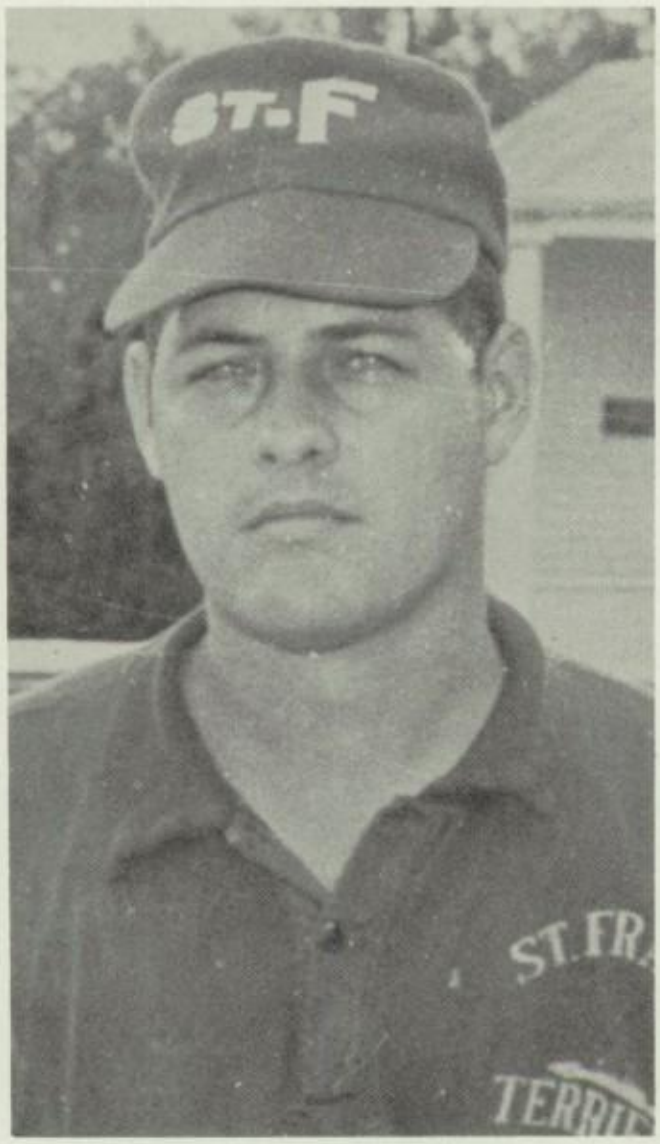
Several major league organizations had scouted Harold during his senior year at St. Francis and three reached the "talking" stage. Harold chose Milwaukee over Pittsburgh and Washington.

A review of Haydel's high school and American Legion baseball pitching statistics shows why he was one of the most sought-after ball players in the state.

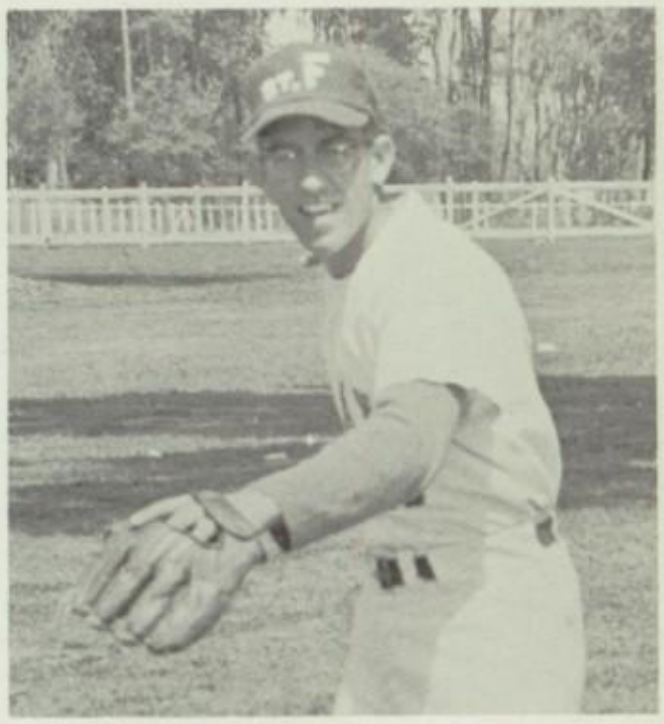
A summary of strike out statistics for high school and Legion ball combined reveals that Haydel fanned 405 batters in 231 innings, which is 1.7 per inning.

Terrier Baseball

Moving nonchalantly through his paces, without a sign of the terrific pressure that generally goes with the coach who has a state championship team was 1962 Terrier coach Leslie Daigle. The Terrier mentor ended his season with a 13-6 record and the seventh state championship for the local nine.

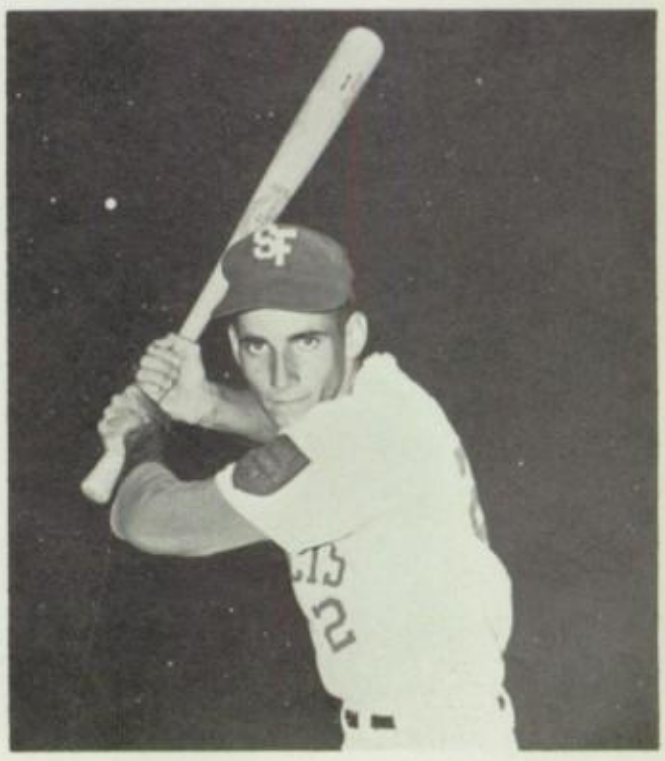


Coach Leslie Daigle
COACH OF THE YEAR



Junior David Faulk earned honors playing an excellent shortstop and leading the Terrier roster with a batting average of .347. He also made All-State.

Barry Domangue, Terrier third sacker, who was also used on the mound and in the field, left a fine record after four years with the SF nine.



Donald Chauvin, second baseman, won all-state, as a Junior on the Terrier team.

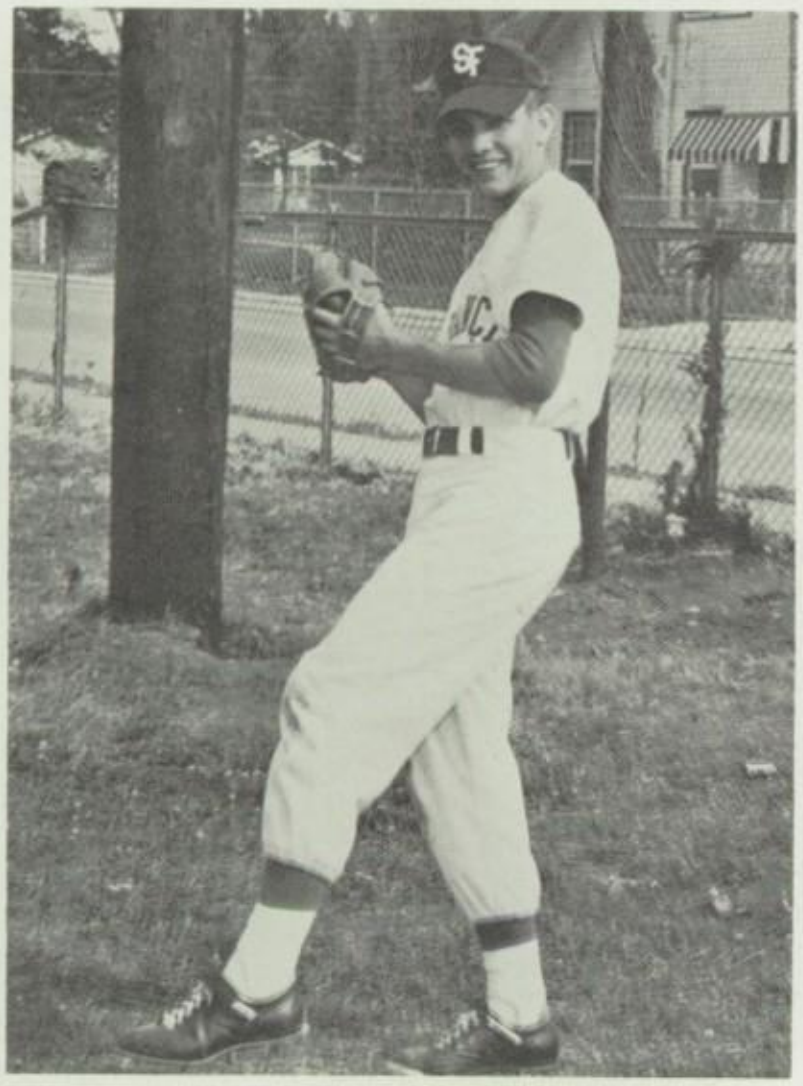
Barry Domangue is successful as he tags a Hornet at the third bag.

In the South Louisiana playoff game, excitement mounted when it looked as though Mike Breaux was not going to catch the ball in time. As it happened, this was the Farmerville out that ended the game. Terriers 15—Farmerville 1.

State Champs!

A jubilant Terrier team hoists Coach Daigle in a spirit of gratitude after the state championship game.



Thanks to the efficient pitching of ace-hurler Harold Haydel, the Terriers boast of an eighth state championship in baseball.

Timely hitting combined with a sterling mound performance to propel the St. Francis Terriers to their eighth state baseball championship. The Terriers defeated the Rayville Hornets, 8-0, for the crown, behind the two-hit pitching of Harold Haydel who hurled the last contest of his high school career for St. Francis.

From the beginning, the game was played in championship form by the Terriers. The S. F. S. nine fielded the ball well (when Rayville managed to hit it), committed no errors, and collected thirteen base hits, including four long doubles.

The victory was the result of teamwork, training, and practice. It was a perfect climax to the efforts of the hard-working team.

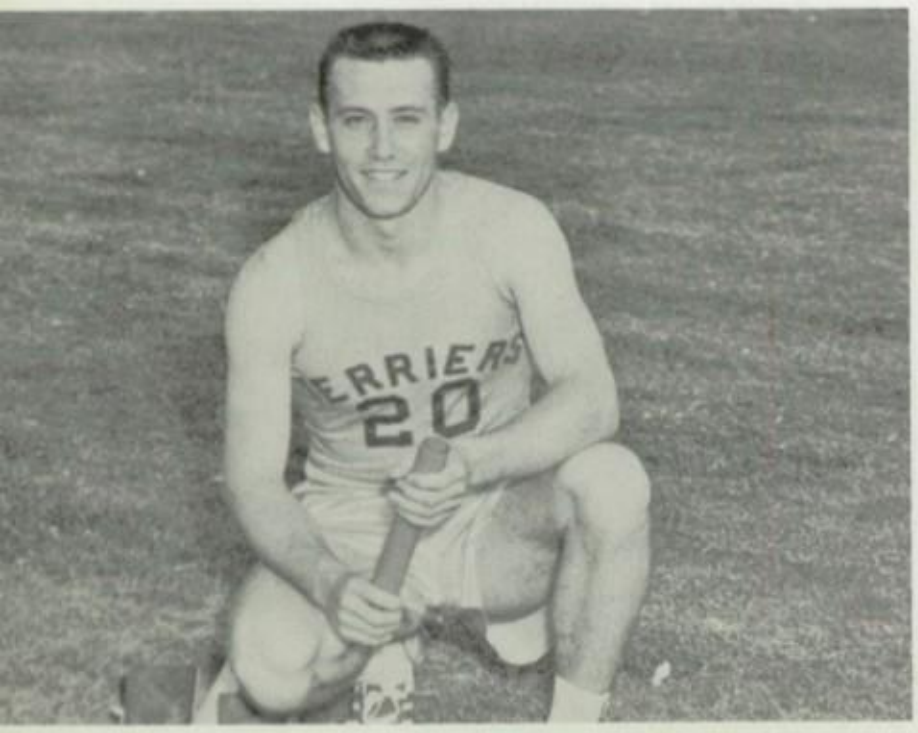
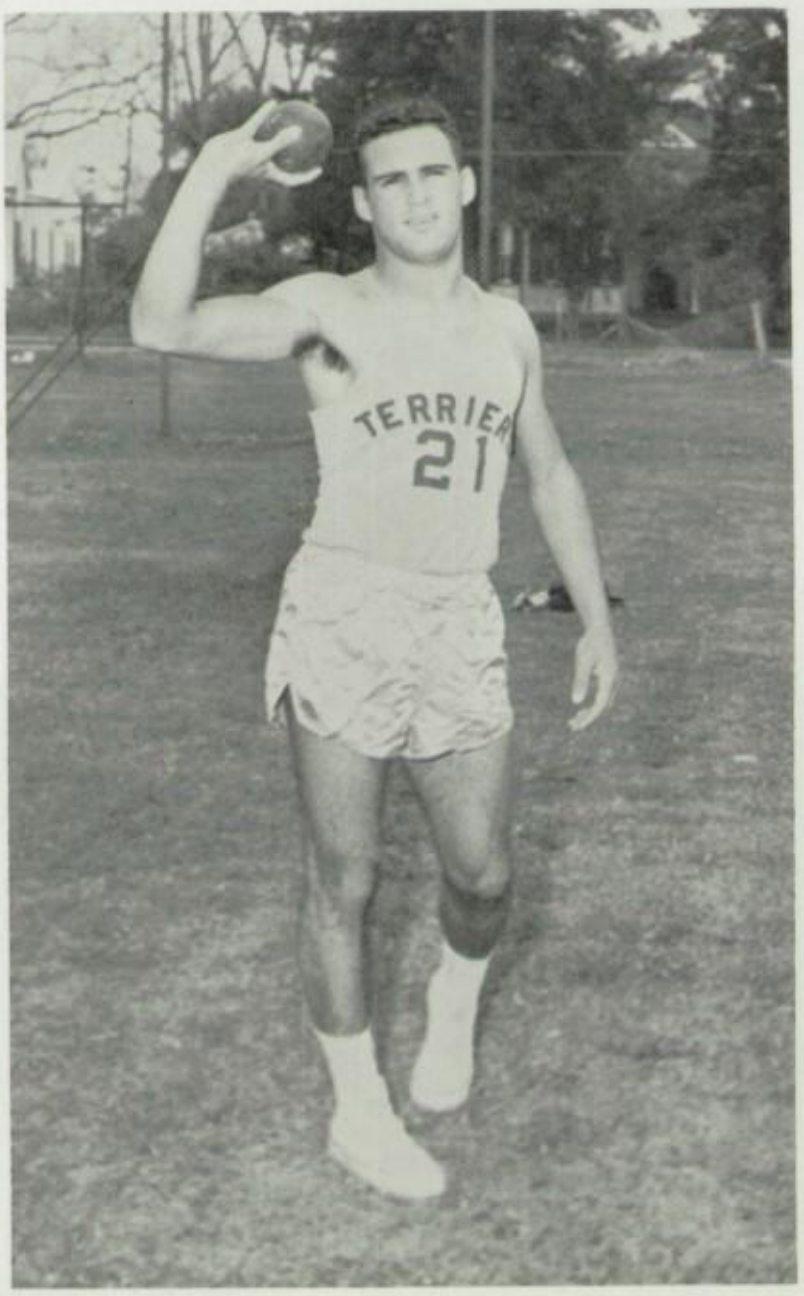
Sprinting off to a successful season the track team typifies the year with much work and good sportsmanship which is synonymous with Saint Francis de Sales.

Coach Boudreaux trained this agile group to bring home the laurels of victory.



Relay-star, Tommy Ellender rests a moment before the next event.



Sterling Marchive, promising first year track member, specializes in the shot-put.

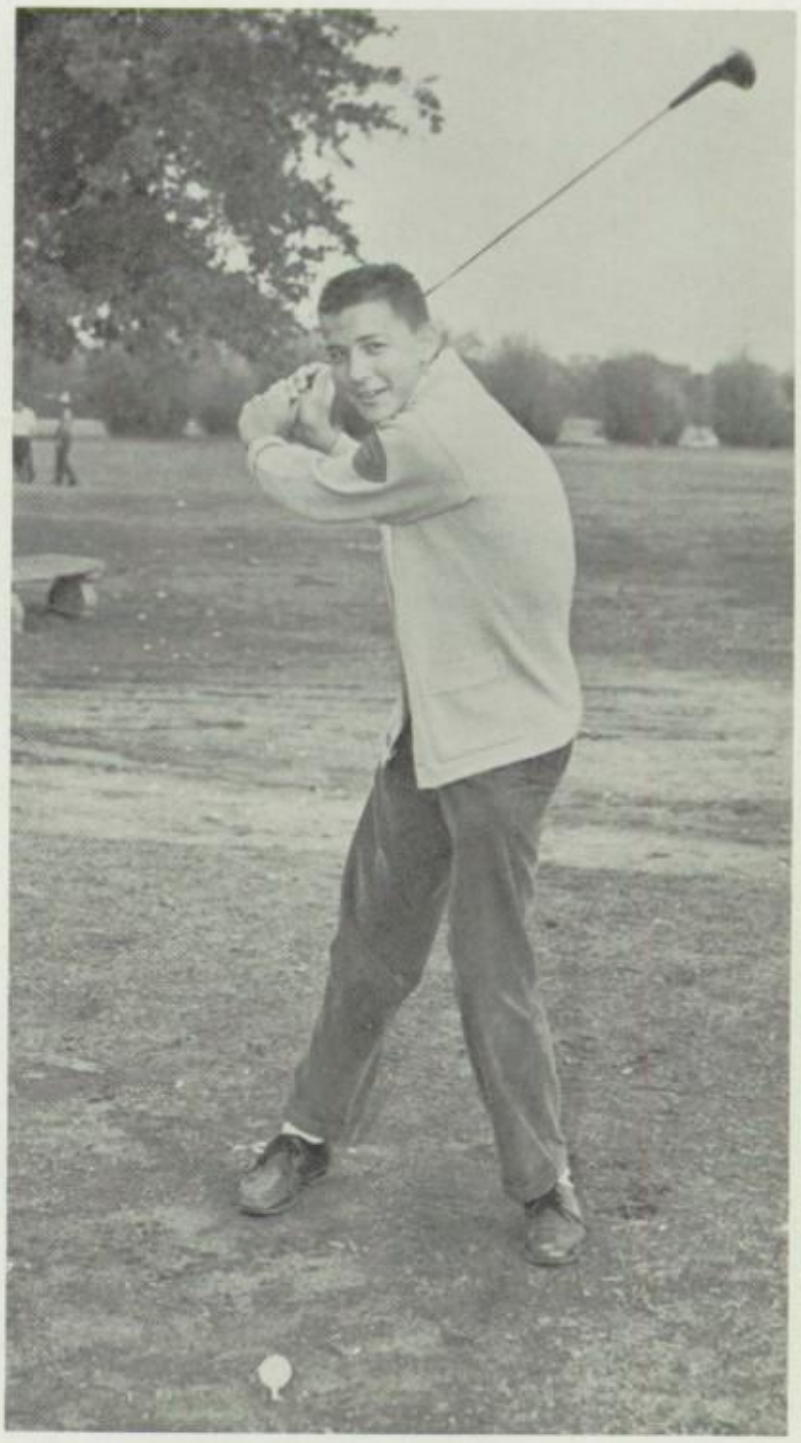
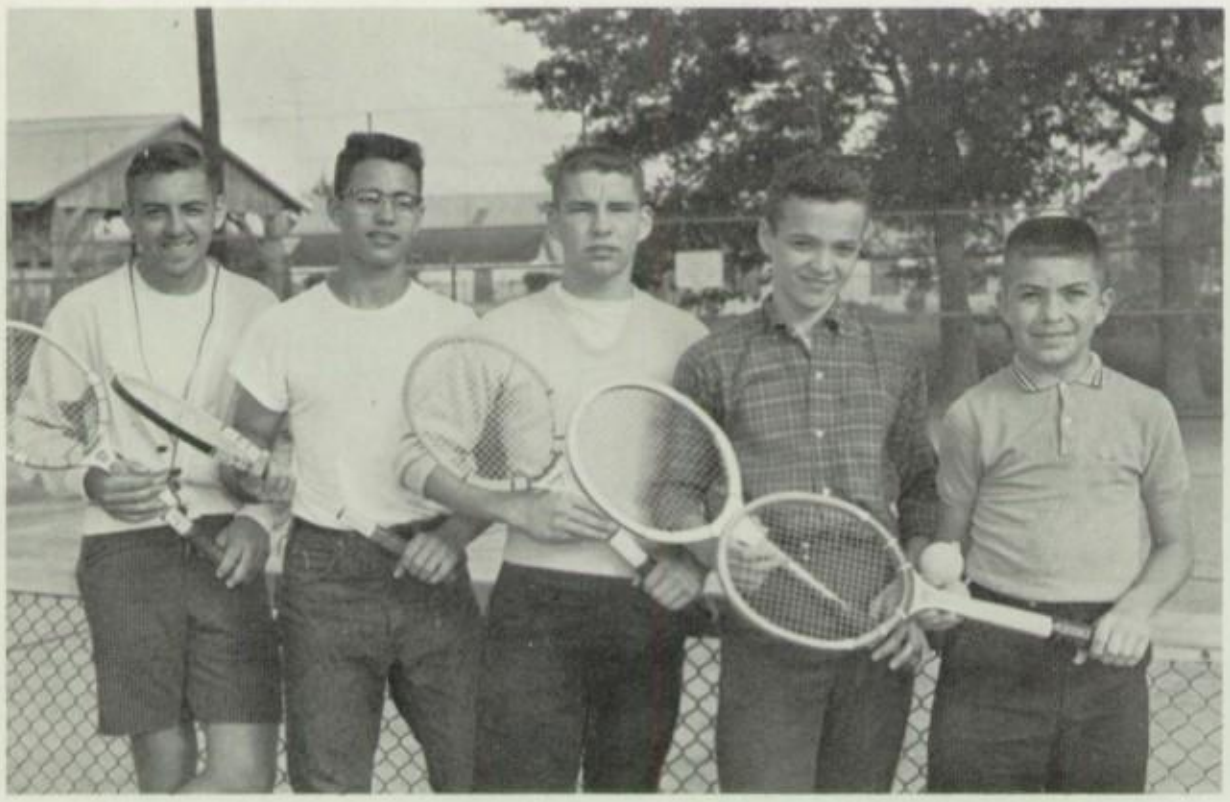
The Saint Francis Golf Team is now in its third year of existence. With the co-operation of John Fisher, pro, of the Houma Golf Club, these twelve boys learn the intracacies of that fine game of Golf.



FORE! Sammy de Generes tees off on the first green. Could even be a hole in one!

S.F.S. Action on the Court



The St. Francis boy's tennis team stop for a picture during an afternoon of practice. The members are: Gerald Winder, Arnold Richard, Bill Talbot, Roy Breerwood, and Phil Caillouet.

Linda LeBlanc, girl's tennis team captain, executes a perfect serve during a tournament.

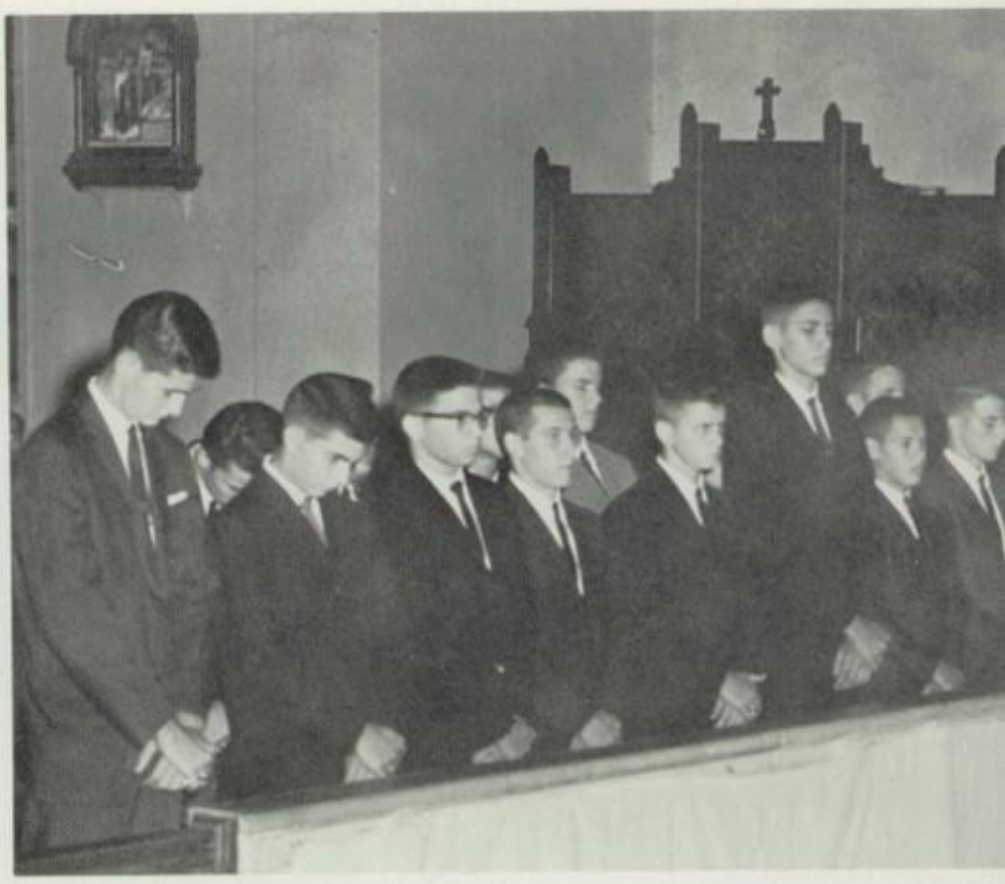
Members of both girl's and boy's tennis teams watch as their teammates win another set.

Practicing for the same meet are Linda Schouest, Dottie Guidry, and Pat Daigle.

Rain doesn't stop our energetic players as they practice for the Jeanerette Meet.

Activities

A solemn moment of gratitude and prayer is expressed in the faces of the Senior girls at the blessing of their Senior rings.



The Senior boys receive the blessing for their rings on this special, solemn morning.

Seniors Receive Rings

"The party's over," but the Juniors seem to be having a ball cleaning up after the Senior ring party.

After effects of the Ring Party find a few Seniors willing to pose for a picture. B. J. just wanted to relax!

Freshmen Orientated

Senior Class President, Kathy Stark, introduces Senior speakers and presides over Freshman Orientation.

On September 27, 1962, the Freshmen class was formally introduced to high school.

The Senior—Freshman friends established that day proved to be true all through the year.

Representatives of the various school organizations explained to the freshmen the purposes of each group and the participation expected from them in these clubs. This informative welcome was readily enjoyed by everyone.

The Seniors and Freshmen relax and enjoy refreshments together.

Creative efforts captured first place trophy for the spirited Junior Class. Their marching group carried out this clever theme with an original song and licking lollipops.

Linda LeBlanc, president of the Junior class accepts the trophy for the Best Float in behalf of the victorious Junior Class.

Homecoming Activities

Homecoming Court '61 was popularly chosen by the members of the Terrier football team. The announcing of Queen and maids was the beginning of our Homecoming activities.

The excitement hightened as the respective classes began planning and decorating for float competition. In the true spirit of S.F.S., the parade and bonfire welcomed home the grads and cheered on the Terriers to a victorious football game.

St. Francis Terriers vs. Larose Bulldogs proved to be one of the most exciting games of the season. With a score of 6-6, all minds turned to the final event, the Homecoming Dance.

The Senior boys prepared this gigantic bonfire to add to traditional Homecoming festivities.

A poster contest to boost attendance at the Homecoming game was sponsored by the Pep Squad. The winner was Kathy Stark, her prize—a football signed by every member of the Terrier team.

The 1961 Homecoming Court was presented the night of the parade. The girls wore banners given them by their classmates.

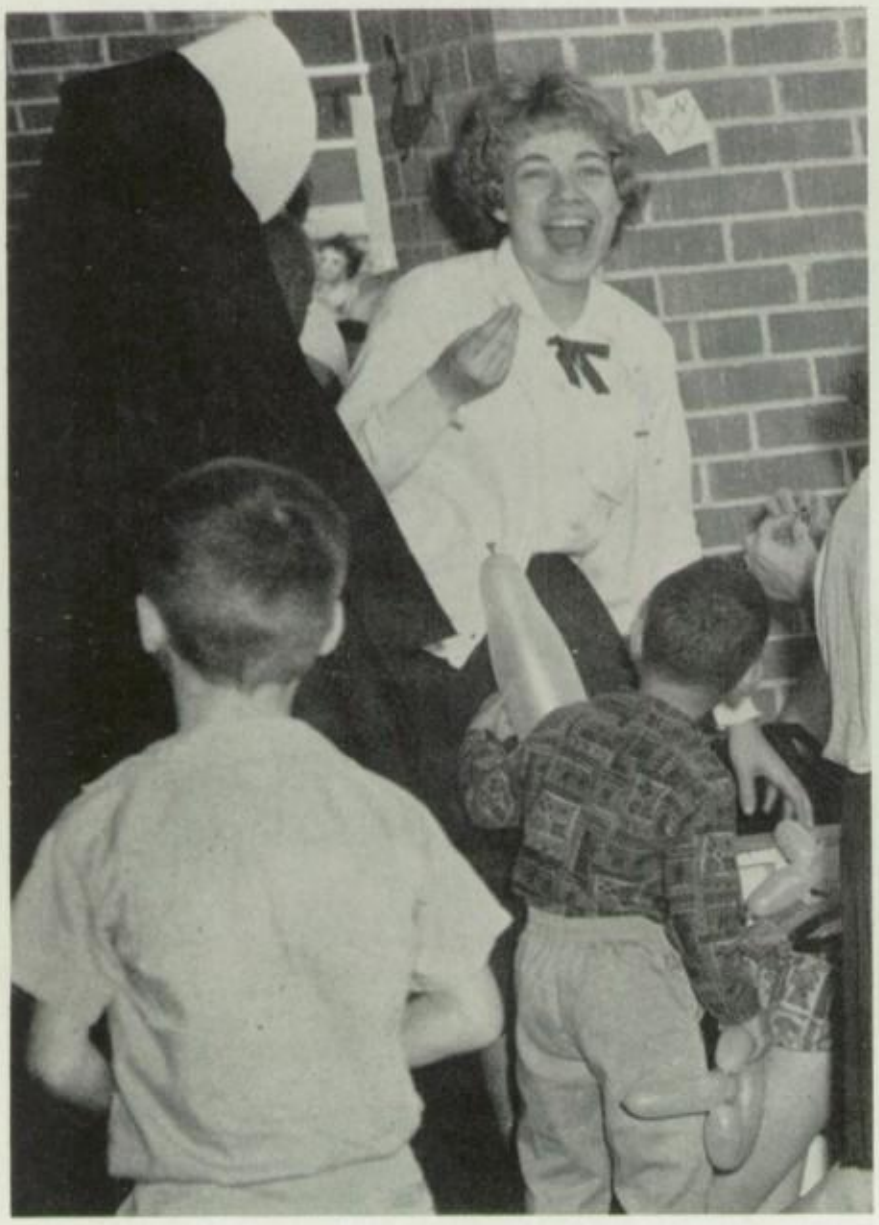
The Spirit of Generosity

Gee, this Penny party is fun! The younger set of S. F. enjoy an afternoon of real pleasure. Even Diane Heifker's little brothers joined in the fun.



Gwen Davidson shouts "At last I'm finished selling my balloons!"

The shelter was the center of activity for the Penny party, as feminine high school "barkers" advertised their wares.

Student Council Enjoys

The Student Council election reaches fever pitch as the Yank Party rallies under the shelter.

The Ladies Auxiliary presented flags to the school through the student council. Sister Finian accepts the flags on behalf of the school.

These pages present some of the activities the Student Council initiated or participated in during the school year. This important school organ enjoyed thirty-six weeks of varied and constant activity and can truly claim to have had a successful year.

Sister John opens the new microscopes presented to the science department by the Cooperative Club.

Successful Year

The Student Council's Winter Formal was opened to the attendants by Claire Belanger who collected the evening's invitations.

These three Marianites presented different views on vocations to the girls' student body during May, vocation month.

Mr. Bob Valder and his wife were special guests at the Catholic Youth Week Rally co-sponsored by the Student Council and other parish organizations.

All school organizations were represented by signs or banners at the Catholic Youth Week Mass.

Cecil . . . Our SFS Teen Queen 1961

Symbolizing a true spirit of Saint Francis de Sales is Miss Cecil Ann Cenac, Teen Queen of 1961-62. She was given her crown at the Winter Formal by Miss Ann Cenac, '61 Queen.

Cecil Ann was chosen by the Senior class for her excellent character and qualities, exemplifying the ideal Saint Francis teenage girl.

MISS CECIL ANN CENAC

Cecil Ann, a "typical Teen," was chosen from the junior class. Like most American teenagers she spends some time talking on the phone!

Ann Cenac turns her reign over to Cecil Ann Cenac at the pre-Winter formal ceremonies.

A Franciscan Evening

The second Winter Formal of Saint Francis was portrayed this year in a graceful setting of rolling meadows and majestic mountains. Amid the splendor of winter time, her majesty the Teen Queen of our school was announced. Miss Cecil Cenac was crowned Queen of the Teens.

The sparkling Spirit of Saint Francis pageant unfolded, presenting the candidates aspiring for the evening's honor. Chosen by their respective classes, the candidates were selected by the process of lottery. Each winner was presented with a banner of school colors and the title of Maid or Duke in the Spirit of Saint Francis court.

Highlight of the ball was the coronation of their majesties, Kathy Stark and Barry Domangue. The gala event was climaxed by a grand march led by the monarchs.

The remainder of the night was given over to dancing. Orchestration was provided by Emmet and the Jades.

It was a moment of honor and happiness as Queen Kathy Stark and King Barry Domangue are crowned reigning monarchs of the Spirit of Saint Francis Court.

Student Council President, Miss Kathy Haydel and her escort, Mr. Jay Belanger attend the '61 Winter Formal.

Awaiting that exciting moment of presentation, the Spirit of St. Francis Court nominees are caught off-guard, backstage.

Spirit of St. Francis

Krewe members of the Spirit of St. Francis Court, consisting of all the candidates, assemble before the audience as a grand finale of court entertainment.

"Oh, no!" And a shrill of surprise and excitement was heard as the honor bearers and the Master of Ceremonies announced the name of the queen, Kathy Stark.

Announcing the Spirit of St. Francis Court were the Master of Ceremonies, Timmy Ellender and Mistress of Ceremonies, Roberta Fleming.

Home Ec. Class Presents Latest Styles

The models assemble on the stage for a final bow. These girls made their garments in Home Ec. class, Fabrics and Textiles division.

Linda Fanguy models her striking culottes, perfect for an afternoon of sports.

. . . Open House

Science fair winners received their share of praise. From synthetic rubies, to clever geometric designs, each student contributed their talents to make the affair a true success.

To give interested parents a picture of our school work and accomplishments, yearly, Saint Francis holds its open house.

At this function students are given a chance to show their skills and knowledge acquired through school work.

This year, many new improvements were obvious, thanks to the aid of the co-operative club.

Winners in the Junior Division spent time and effort in preparing their projects to be entered.

Barbara Authement places the finishing touches on the Home Ec. display, "Fabrics and Textiles" division.

Eager young minds learn the "How and Why" of science displays, broadening their knowledge.

Pelican and State Tickets

In this scene of the State Skit, Philip "Humpty Dumpty" Dupre delivers his campaign speech for the position of Alderman, Ward IV.

Highlight of the Pelican Skit was the presentation of Kathy Haydel, candidate for Mayor, as the T. V. personalities look on.

Vie for City Government

The efficient voting commissioners of the girls' school are, Sybil Chauvin, Dian Heffker, chief deputy registrar Jane Melancon, Cecil Cenac, and Bernadette Walker.

The hard workers of the boys' school prepare for the first of the voters.

To foster appreciation and knowledge of city government the Chamber of Commerce sponsors yearly for the schools of the parish, Youth Government Day. In this excellent program, the elected or appointed officials actually run the city of Houma for-a-day.

Prior to election time, vigorous campaigning takes place, poster parties, political rallies and skits.

As an added dash of excitement to the election, the scene for the annual skits was changed to the Terriers' baseball field.

On the following day, the voting took place, and Tom Ellender was elected our Mayor, Class of '62.

Jenifer Naquin who was T. V. star "Angel" in the Pelican skit started her campaign speech with "Oh Johnny" as Bernie Koshier willingly portrays Johnny.

City officials, all from S. F. S., govern Houma, for a day!

THE 1961 ST. FRANCIS CHEERLEADERS

Surely if there is an outstanding display of sportsmanship, it is the efforts of the cheerleaders. They are kneeling from left: Joyce Vedros, Susan Fabregas, Paulette Schexnaildre, Joan Blanchard, Julie Boyne, and Monique Ellender; and standing: Patricia Chauvin, Kathy Doyle, and Sybil Chauvin.

Girl Students Enjoy Field Day

Julie Boyne adds suspense and thrill to the Dress and Undress relay as she gives Sophomore B a head start in the game.

. . . Senior Class Places First

All year long, each and every girl of Saint Francis enjoys watching our Terrier athletes rack-up points and collect trophies.

For a change and a little fresh air, annually the student council sponsors Field Day.

The sun always smiles upon the C. Y. O. lot on Field day, and this year was no exception. Bright and early, 182 girls assembled at the lot with blue gym shorts and shining faces. All day long they competed in the different sporting events, proving that even the gentler sex can swing a straight bat and throw a mean horse shoe.

At the end of the day, everyone was happy and a little sunburned. Even the losers were smiling, and unamiously the S. F. girls proved that "Field day" and sportsmanship are the same!

Senior third baseman, Jingle Winders, eyes the ball carefully as she watches for a sure home run.

The Sophomore class practices in hopes of a first place in the Wheelbarrow Relay.

The 1962 Senior Personalities exemplify how much spirit the Seniors really have. Each girl and boy was selected by the popular vote of the Senior Class to represent this spirit.

The annual program, which is sponsored by the Terr' Alma, went off in its finest tradition. In the first week of May the Favorites were nominated and voted upon. The results were kept secret until the Junior-Senior Prom. That night, Miss Leslie Perez, Assistant Editor of the Terr'Alma, announced the long awaited awards. Each Personality was presented a small gift from the Terr' Alma Staff.

On these and the following pages are pictured these bright young Americans. May their personalities remain as vivacious and outstanding as they were in 1962.

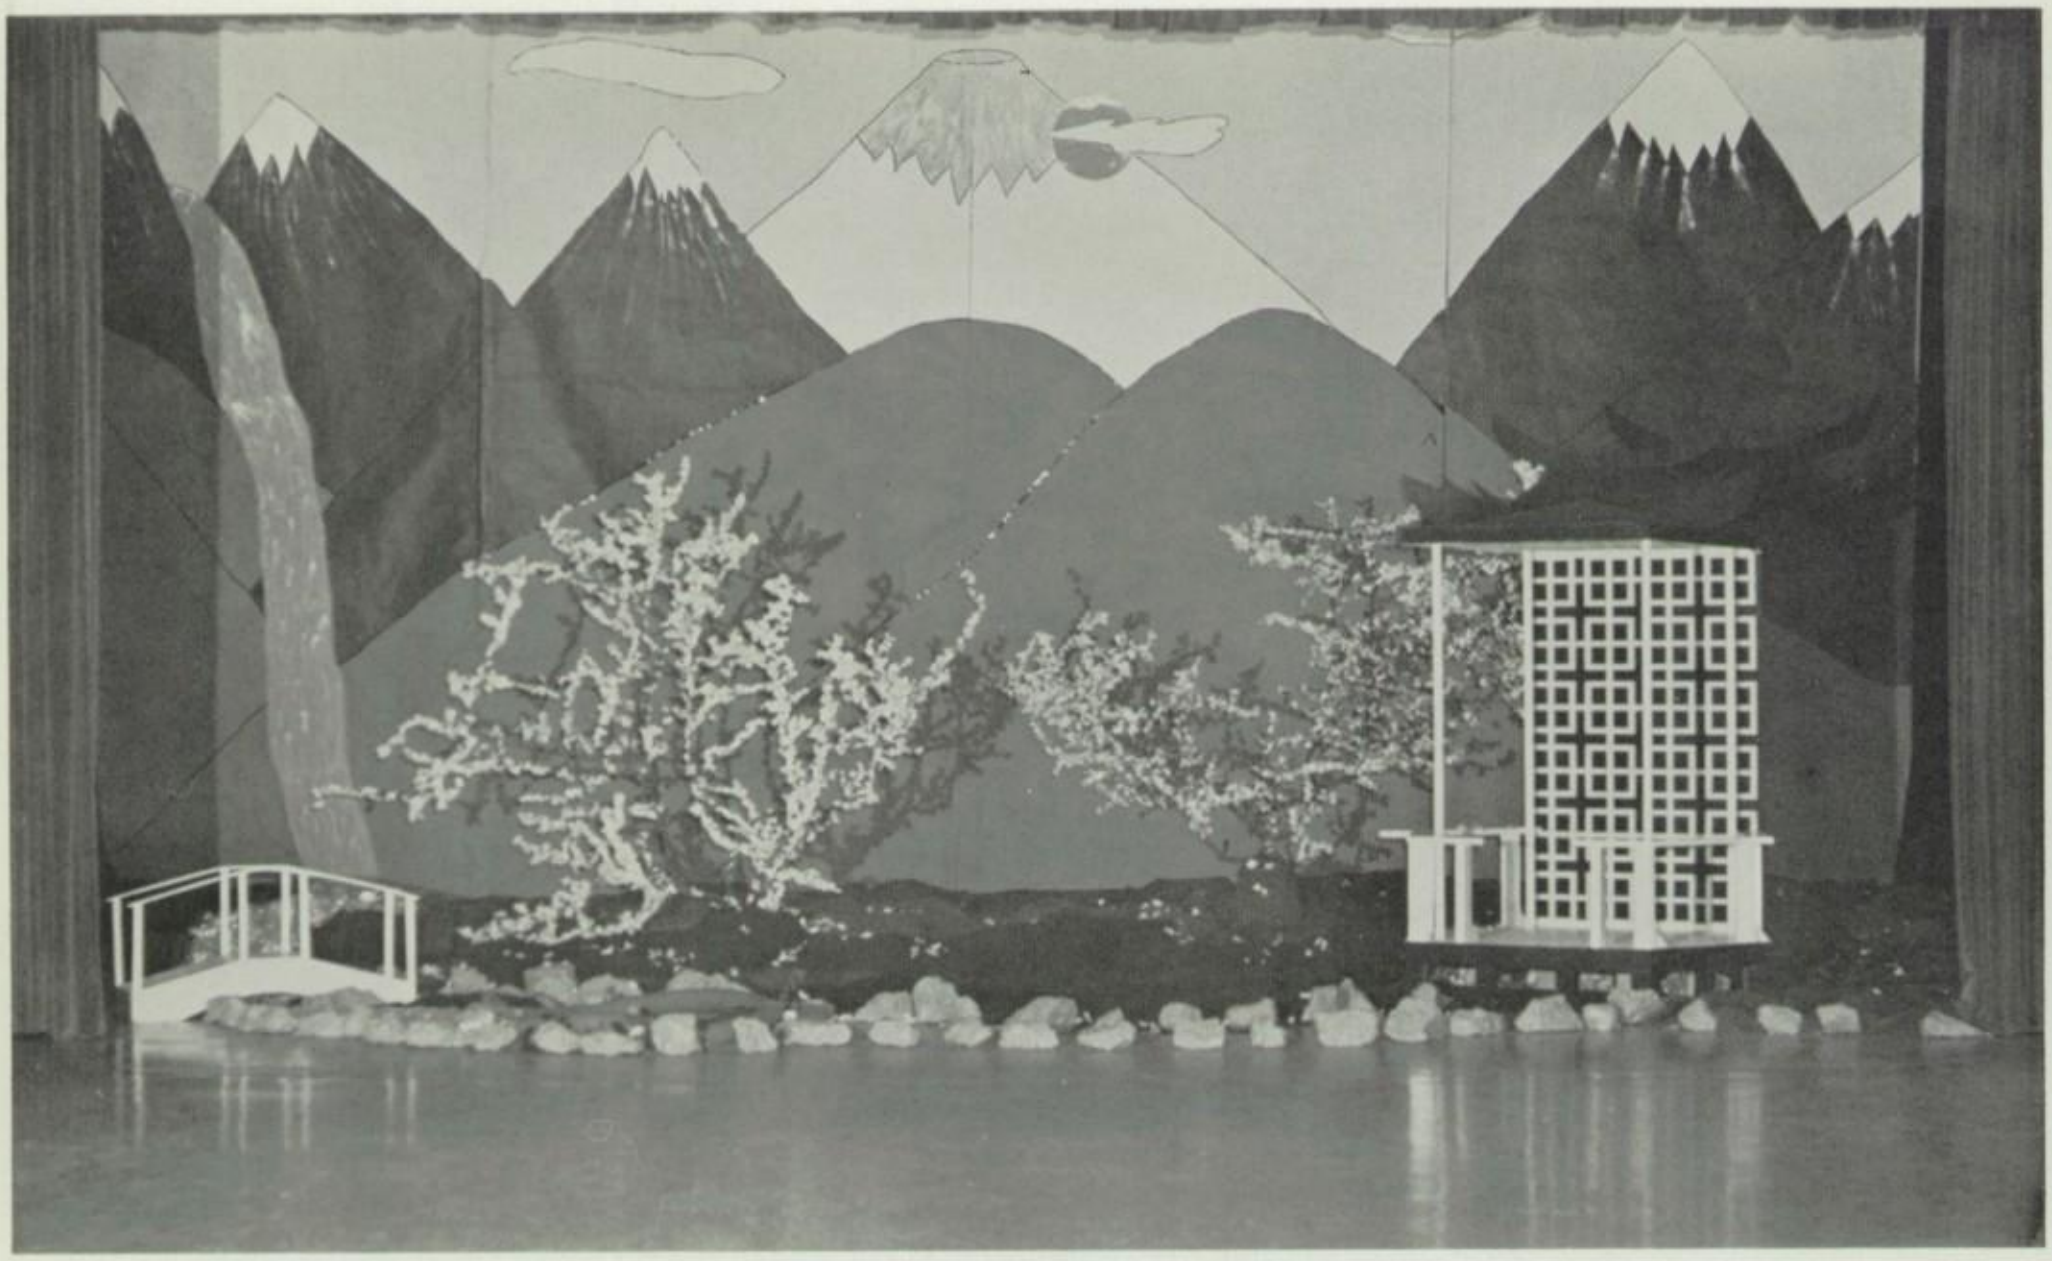
Seniors Enjoy



"Oriental Ecstacy" was vividly captured in this beautiful stage scene. The spirited efforts and undying co-operation of the Junior Class was exemplified in this successful prom night.

All Seniors participated in the grand march. Original oriental fans and chop sticks were presented as prom favors.

"Oriental Ecstacy"

All of the romanticism of the Land of the Rising Sun was reflected in the hauntingly beautiful theme, "Oriental Ecstacy" of our Junior-Senior Prom. A cheery blossom garden, through which ran a stream spanned by a Bridge of Dreams, resembled an Oriental picture card come to life.

In the lobby was an enchanting sunken garden scene. Floating on a mirror pool, bordered with green rocks, were scores of water lilies. Two huge Japanese umbrellas formed a captivating canopy over the pond.

Suspended from the center-ceiling was a magnificient wind chime of tinkling Japanese glass.

So it was from the land of ultimate beauty, the Orient, the Juniors bid the Seniors Sayonara—a fond good-bye.

Presidents Kathy Stark and Tommy Ellender lead the Seniors of '62 for the last time in the grand march. It was a happy "Sayonara."

A fascinating oriental pond was the highlight of lobby decorations. Water lilies and Japanese umbrellas created the scene.

Juniors Bid —

Errol Eschete and Kathy Stark pause in the ゾ ゾ ゾ (Japanese for "bar") and enjoy refreshments.

Senior Class officers unite to continue the grand march. Presidents, Kathy Stark and Tommy Ellender extend hands to Vice Presidents, Gordon Ourso and Joan Blanchard as Secretaries, Jenifer Naquin and Donald Domangue and Treasurers, Myriam Winders and B. J. Cheramie follow.

Roberta "Prue" Fleming and Dalton "Putch" Le Blanc express typical Senior reactions. It was fun!

Miss Leslie Perez, assistant editor of Terr'Alma, happily reveals the Senior Personalities.

Sayonara

Mrs. Louis Guenoit, chaperon, willingly serves lemonade to junior, David Faulk.

Sophs Bid Seniors

Vivian's act really got those Seniors hopping to the Mexican hat dance.

Mexico was alive in all of the scenery.

Tommy Ellender serves as "stunt man" in Vivian's panomime from "The King and I." Everyone enjoyed it!

The Sophs really worked to have the Seniors express their ooh's and ah's!

Sophs scramble through day-before rush jobs.

"Adios Amigos" was the enchanting theme of the Sophomore-Senior Breakfast. Sunny Mexico shone throughout the cheerful scenery and the bright entertainment. The color, the gayness, and the Mexican cheer all helped to make the morning a big success.

"Adios Amigos"

Waiting to be served, the Seniors reminisce and enjoy that sunny Mexican atmosphere.

Kathy Haydel returned the Soph's greeting "adios" and expressed sincere gratitude on behalf of the Senior Class.

Freshmen Entertain Seniors

Every college aspirant needs luggage, so Freshmen give Kathy Haydel that extra piece at the delightful Freshman Party.

Vice-president Charlotte Kraus in a clever skit presented by the Freshmen gives Kathy Stark a king sized aspirin for all the headaches she will encounter at college.

Roberta Fleming plans to be a dental hygienist, so to help her along the Freshmen gave her a giant toothbrush. Come on, Roberta, show us that toothbrush.

Senior Barbara Authement and her freshman friend Robin Wurzlow sing the "Halls of St. Francis" together for the last time.

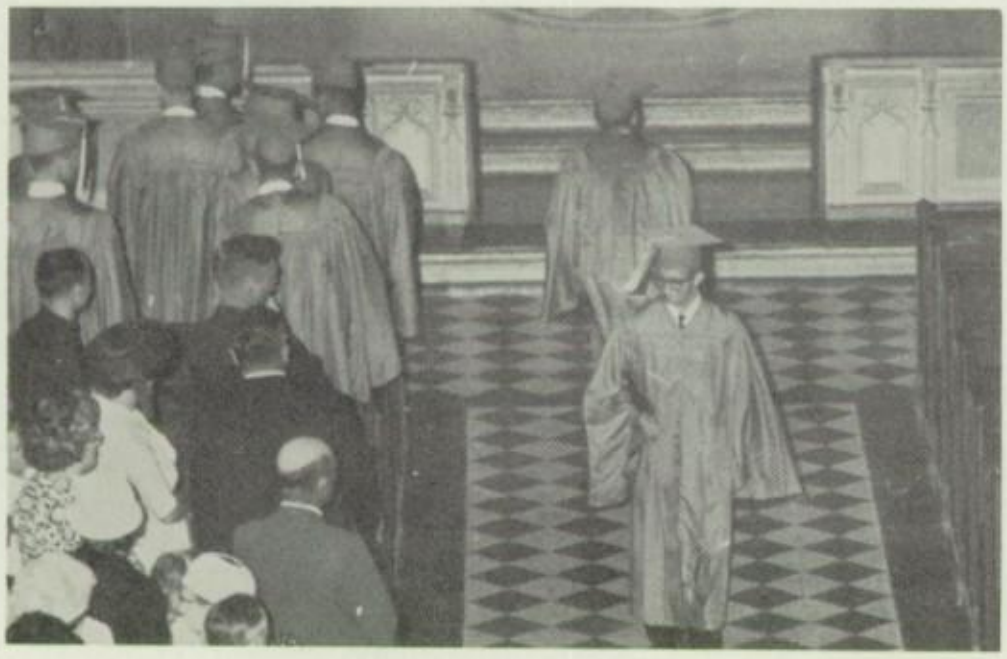
Graduation at Last

"Thank Heavens!"

"Rock!!"

The expression of achievement and sincere happiness, as captured in the smile of Roberta Fleming, was typical of each graduate.

"In Ourselves The Future Lies" . . . With this philosophic motto as a guide on Franciscans of the Class of '62 face their tomorrows undaunted and unafraid, cognizant that shielded by the blue mantle of the Blessed Virgin Mary—class patroness—they may trod the mandatory, accelerated tempo on life's highway with confidence. Day after day, throughout that thrilling senior year, the "Halls of St. Francis" reverberated with teen chatter. Friendships gained, knowledge acquired, memories never to be forgotten all pledge anew loyalty to their soon-to-be Alma Mater.



"It's over!" Seniors of '62 walk out of Church together for the last time. It's a happy, yet sad moment for all.

Valedictorians, Tommy Ellender, Charlene Moore and Jerome LeCompt recite the prayer of consecration to the Sacred Heart at the foot of the altar.

"Guess what we're doing, Seniors!"

Hey, We're the Juniors

Annual Career Day transformed the Juniors into Seniors for a Day.

In a true spirit of enthusiasm, the Juniors worked hard on Field Day, 1962.

A little nonsense now and then is relished by the finest men.

On Easter Monday, the Juniors carried out a class mission project by singing for the ladies at Flannagan's.

Terrier Anthem
Through the dark and stormy weather
Through the sunny weather's gleam
We have stood within the circle
Of our glorious Terrier team.
We have fought to gain a victory
And the best we'll always do
Our team is marching on.

Every day in every way, we have strived for our dear team.
We have fought to gain our honor high,
Be ever on the beam.
And in the end though we may lose,
We'll gain a victory too,
Our team is marching on.

We Wrote "Spirit" as

Sports Editor Barbara Authement and assistant Linda Le Blanc let nothing stop them from completing an assignment, even a soaked field.

Mrs. Gueniot, Kathy Stark, and Roberta Fleming pile into a car with loads of yearbook homework equipment to try to meet the deadline.

Cookie Belanger, Bernadine Boudreaux, Barbara Thibodaux, and Sibyl Chauvin try to make some sense out of the jumble of layout material in front of them.

David Pellegrin wields his sharp pencil as he takes care of the technically, a tedious part of the book's makeup.

We Saw It . . .

The business staff, Martha Labit, Carolyn Daigle, and Dottie Klingman attempt some high calculating on their favorite adding machine.

Mr. Steve Kenny's help in getting the yearbook started this year was very important to the success of the '62 Terr' Alma.

Roberta and Linda model the popular 1962 staff fashions as they report to one of those "summer" meetings.

The photography staff, Therese Smith, Susan Dill, and Laura Fanguy cut up after a hard day in the darkroom.

Sibyl Chauvin receives the news that she will be editor of the Terr' Alma, 1963.

. . . and Lived It at SFS

Mrs. Louis Gueniot, Terr' Alma Advisor, helped us through many long hours and disappointments.

Jay Belanger, chief literarian performs one of the many duties he has, this one being phoning for the correct information.

Dottie Guidry demonstrates the zeal which made her Booster Queen as she solicits a booster from Mr. Lou Burnett.

Each year the Terr'Alma sponsors a Booster Contest in the high school. The respective high school classes nominate a candidate and put all their support behind her. This year the competition was close with the hard-working Juniors coming out on top.

Mr. Gary,

Having been our mayor for the past sixteen years, you are very much acquainted with the history of St. Francis de Sales School. You are surely aware of our reputation for giving credit where it is due. Therefore it should be no surprise to you that we present you with this tribute.

You, Sir, have stood for us in halls and assemblies, advancing and defending our cause. You have talked for us, written for us, and worked for us during your years of excellent service to the City of Houma. We at St. Francis want to express our gratitude, even if it be only this page in our yearbook. Thank you, Mr. Gary, for being such a good friend.

Acknowledgements

The expression of gratitude necessitates a spirit we may have already touched in this book—the spirit of recognition. This spirit brings itself into focus in the closing pages of our book. In the light of acknowledgement we choose to honor and thank . . . . .

The Saint whose patronage and inspiration are so evident in this volume, St. Francis de Sales;

The principals and high school faculties who have guided and counseled us;

Miss Tracy Duplantis, the Coaching Staff, Mr. Ivy Smith, Mr. John Gordon, the Houma Courier, Bert's Photo Shop, Webb's Studio, and the Taylor Publishing Company for indispensable aid generously given;

The people whose assistance we especially needed, Sister Mary John the Evangelist, Sister Mary Joseph, Mr. Steve Kenny;

And finally, she who has imbued this staff with the youthful, spiritliness and mature dedication which we think permeates these pages, making them true mirrors of St. Francis, Mrs. Jeannie Gueniot.
